

Del Loewenthal (UK)

Del Loewenthal is Emeritus Professor of Psychotherapy and Counselling at the University of Roehampton, UK and both Chair of the Southern Association for Psychotherapy and Counselling (SAFPAC) and the Critical Psychotherapy Network (CPN). He is an existential–analytic psychotherapist, photographer and chartered psychologist. He has over 200 publications and his books include: Handbook of Phototherapy and Therapeutic Photography (2023, Routledge); Developments in Field Theory for Psychotherapists, Psychoanalysts and Counsellors (2023, Routledge); Psychotherapy and Unstable Notions of Masculinity (2023, Routledge); Levinas and the Other in Psychotherapy and Counselling (2022, Routledge); Toxic Young Adulthood: Therapy and Therapeutic Ethos (2002, Routledge); What is Paranormal?: Some Implications for Psychological Therapies (2021, Routledge); Critical Existential-Analytic Psychotherapy (2021, Routledge); Love, Sex and Psychotherapy in a Post-Romantic Era (2020, Routledge); Towards Transcultural Histories of Psychotherapies (2020, Routledge); Beyond the Therapeutic State (2020, Routledge); Developments in Psychotherapeutic Qualitative Research (2019, Routledge); Why Not CBT? Against and For CBT Revisited (2018, PCCS); and Existential Psychotherapy and Counselling after Post-Modernism (2017, Routledge). Del has lectured and conducted workshops in Africa, Australasia, Europe, North and South America. He is also founding editor of the European Journal of Psychotherapy and Counselling (Routledge) and has a private practice in England (Wimbledon and Brighton). www.delloewenthal.com